Hilton Garden Inn Downtown
Sioux Falls, SD

Complete and submit your abstract and the Information Form by May 31, 2023, to Dr. Andy Carswell, the proceedings editor at carswell@uga.edu.

Conference Theme: Housing for Everyone

Housing is available in a variety of forms and we often think of housing as a single-family detached dwelling. Many U.S. residents do not live in single-family detached dwellings; they live in apartments, townhomes, condominiums; others live in shelters due to financial difficulties and/or domestic violence. Others seek shelter in hotels and hostels. Proposals on housing, in all of its forms, are welcome at this conference.

Abstract is limited to 500 words.

Abstracts related to the conference theme are encouraged; however, you may submit an abstract on any topic of interest to housing professionals. Your abstract should align with one of the following areas of presentation.

- Instructional Strategies and Programming Ideas. Entries may include materials developed for teaching or Extension outreach; evaluation tools and procedures; educational methods; and other topics appropriate for sharing.
- Research. Submissions should state the following: rationale or purpose of the research, research objectives, methodology, procedures, results, conclusions, and implications.
- Issues and Policy. Abstracts may include any relevant concern to housing professionals regarding policy and issues both within the field, and those impacting the field.

Submissions must conform to the following guidelines:

- Margins of one inch all around, 8.5 x 11-inch paper.
- 12-point Times Roman font size.
- At the top of the submission, center the title in upper case letters.
